

On 25 – 27 October, 2017, in Almaty (Republic of Kazakhstan), the 9th Kazakhstan-Chinese International Symposium "Earthquake Prediction, Seismic Hazard Assessment and Seismic Risks of Central Asia" organized by the LLP "Institute of Seismology" and the Administration of Earthquakes of the Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region of China took place.

The Symposium was attended by the Director of Research station RAS in Bishkek city Anatoly K. Rybin

, Head of the Laboratory of Complex Study of Geodynamic Processes in Geophysical Fields (LKI)

Vitaly D

.

Bragin

and Head of the Laboratory GPS

Sergei Iv. Kuzikov

. Anatoly K. Rybin presented the paper on "

Electromagnetic Effects on the Environment with the Purpose of Discharge of Tectonic Stresses in the Earth's Crust of Seismically Active Regions (on the example of the Northern Tien Shan)

" of the Group of authors (Rybin A.K., Bragin V.D., Shelokov G.G.).

The 9th Kazakhstan-Chinese International Symposium

Written by Administrator

Monday, 30 October 2017 14:06 -

